

Carleton University Mathematics and Statistics Society
Constitution and Bylaws

Last Updated: June 2023 by Chan
Ratification: 1st September 2023

Preamble	3
Interpretation & Definitions	3
Constitution	4
Article I - The Organization	4
Article II - Mission Statement	4
Article III - Organizational Structure	4
Article IV - Membership	5
Article V - Operation	6
Article VI - Finances	7
Article VII - Elections	7
Article VIII - Impeachment	9
Article IX - Amendments	9
Article X - Dissolution	9
Bylaws	10
1. By-elections	10
2. Membership	10
3. Privacy Policy	11
4. Agreement & Liability	12

Preamble

The Carleton University Mathematics and Statistics Society (hereinafter referred to as “the Society”) is an academic society under the governance of Carleton University Students’ Association (hereinafter referred to as “CUSA”).

We the members of the Carleton University Mathematics and Statistics Society recognize the Society with a Constitution, Bylaws, and Policy as follows.

Interpretation & Definitions

In the Constitution and Bylaws, and in any other rules and regulations of the Society hereafter passed, unless the context otherwise requires, the following definitions shall apply:

1. “Constitution” shall refer to the constitution section of this document;
2. “Bylaws” shall refer to the bylaws section of this document;
3. “The Society” shall refer to the Carleton University Mathematics and Statistics Society;
4. “Executives” shall refer to the members elected by the members to be on the Board of Directors;
5. “Current Student” shall refer to a student registered in any undergraduate or graduate degree at Carleton University;
6. “Faculty” shall refer to both the School of Mathematics and Statistics and the Faculty of Science at Carleton University;
7. “School Year” shall refer to the entire duration of fall and winter term defined in the academic year of Carleton University in which courses are scheduled and held.

Constitution

This Constitution shall take precedence over any Bylaws, regulations, and policies enacted by the Society.

Article I - The Organization

1. The Organization shall be known as the Carleton University Mathematics and Statistics Society and shall act as a representative of its member who would be current undergraduate students attending Carleton University, located in the City of Ottawa, Province of Ontario, Canada.

Article II - Mission Statement

1. Carleton University Mathematics and Statistics Society is a democratically elected body committed to constructing a community where all its members are respected and remain inspired during the pursuit of their study.
2. The Society strives to represent and advocate the interests and concerns of undergraduate students in the School of Mathematics and Statistics on behalf of the membership before the university administration, the faculty, and CUSA.
3. The missions of the Society are to build an inclusive environment that brings students and faculty closer together, to enhance student experiences by organising social and enrichment events, and to provide a platform to students where knowledge and discussion could be exchanged candidly.

Article III - Organizational Structure

The membership at large, consisting of all members, executives, staff, and representatives, acts as the Society's legislative body. The structure for the administration of the Society is organised according to the following categories:

1. Board of Directors: the business and property of the Society shall be conducted by the Board of Directors consisting of the following executive positions. The incumbency of the Board of Directors commences on May 1st and terminates on April 30th every year.
 - a) One President;
 - b) Minimum one Vice President, maximum two Vice Presidents;

- c) One Treasurer.
- 2. Non-executive staff: the Board of Directors may be supported in their role by the following non-executive staff roles, it is up to the discretion of each Executive to appoint their own staff. Non-executive staff hold no voting power on the Board of Directors.
 - a) The President has the power to appoint one secretary as the supporting staff.
 - b) The Vice President has the power to appoint up to three coordinators as the supporting staff.
 - c) The Treasurer has the power to appoint one assistant as the supporting staff.
- 3. Student Representatives: Representatives hold no voting power on the Board of Directors.
 - a) Representatives are to be selected by the Board of Directors at the earliest convenience of the Society in the beginning of each school year.
 - b) Eligibility
 - (i) Representatives must be enrolled in at least three courses of the corresponding year outlined in the Bachelor of Mathematics program, either Math. or Stat., from the department undergraduate calendar at the time of application and intent to remain for the completion of the courses.
 - (ii) Eligibility of applicants is not determined by academic year standing nor by programme major.
 - (iii) Incumbency is renewed at the beginning of every term.
 - c) Composition
 - (i) Up to two first year Representatives; one in the general programme, and one in the honours programme;
 - (ii) Up to two second year Representatives; one in the general programme, and one in the honours programme.

Article IV - Membership

- 1. The Society comprises of members from the current student body of Carleton University, both undergraduate and graduate.
- 2. Individual only receives membership after having paid the membership fee, and registered successfully with the Society.

3. Only those who hold a valid membership by the time of the election are allowed to vote in the end-of-year election.

Article V - Operation

1. The Board of Directors meets regularly with the Non-executive staff and Student Representatives to discuss business. Minutes shall be recorded at the meeting.
2. The Society will convene an annual general meeting for all stakeholders including but not limited to current members, faculty, other academic society, to reflect the performance of the executives, affairs of the Society, and pertinent topics.
3. General member meeting within the Society may be called by member with the consent of over one-third of the voting members on the Board of Directors.
4. Meeting shall be chaired by either the Treasurer or the secretary of the President, the decision is up to the discretion of the Board of Directors.
5. Duties of the Board of Directors:
 - a) The President is liable for
 - (i) The role of Chief Executive Officer of the Society;
 - (ii) Overseeing all affairs of the Society;
 - (iii) Being a primary spokesperson for the Society;
 - (iv) Acting as a liaison between the faculty and the Society;
 - (v) Retrieving the Society's mail from CUSA Office on a regular basis.
 - b) The Vice-President(s) is liable for
 - (i) The facilitation and operation of events;
 - (ii) The promotion and marketing pertaining to the Society;
 - (iii) Ensuring all resources are functional and accessible to members;
 - (iv) Performing duties of the President during the absence or disability of the President.
 - c) The Treasurer is liable for
 - (i) Conducting the financial matters of the Society;
 - (ii) Designing an annual budget to be presented to CUSA
 - (iii) Keeping full and accurate accounts of all assets, receipts, and transactions of the Society in files.

6. All persons serving on the administration, including but not limited to the Board of Directors, Non-executive staff, and Student Representatives, shall serve without honorarium, salary or in-kind benefit. This does not limit them from serving another group without remuneration.

Article VI - Finances

1. Fiscal Year

- a) The Fiscal Year of the Society shall commence on May 1st of each year, and terminate on April 30th of the following year.

2. Banking

- a) The banking business of the Society will be conducted by the Scotiabank on campus;
- b) The President and Treasurer shall act as the financial authorities of the society;
- c) The annual financial statements shall be delivered to members upon request.

3. Remuneration

- a) Remuneration to external agents requires approval from two thirds of the voting members on the Board of Directors;
- b) Before spending in consistence with a particular agency, the proposal must first seek and receive confirmation from the President and at least one Vice President. If denied, the Society member in contact with said agency may call a meeting with the Board of Directors to state their cause where a voting of simple majority would then be required to determine whether it is binding.

Article VII - Elections

1. Eligibility

- a) Prospective candidate must be an undergraduate student of the School of Mathematics and Statistics with programme major in either Math or Stat for the upcoming school year;
- b) Current executive members may run in the election; however, all executive members may serve a maximum of two consecutive terms on the Board of Directors.

2. Nomination

- a) Prospective candidate must be a member of the Society before the start of the nomination period;

- b) At least one nomination from the current member is needed to become a valid nominee, self-nomination is included.

3. Elections Period

- a) Day 1: Nominations are opened. The Society announces that it is seeking a Succession Officer. Important dates are revealed i.e. days for campaigning, voting period, and results announcement;
- b) Day 8: Nominations closed for candidates and Succession Officer;
- c) Day 9: Start of campaign;
- d) Day 13: Last day to purchase memberships to be eligible to vote. After this date, the Society will be closed to new members until voting is completed;
- e) Day 14: End of campaign;
- f) Day 15: Voting period begins;
- g) Day 16: End of voting;
- h) Day 17: Results announced.

4. Electoral Procedure

- a) Elections for executive positions on the Board of Directors will be held at an agreed-upon period at the end of every school year. Elections may also be called if necessary prior to the expiry of the current term.
- b) A Succession Officer will be appointed in advance of each election to facilitate announcing dates, compiling a membership list and running the polling. This individual must be a neutral party to the proceedings, and needs not to be a member of the Society. If no officer is appointed by the time of the election, the Society will seek from the Clubs Oversight Committee of CUSA.
- c) Elections will be held by secret ballot and voting takes place via Google Forms that will be sent to members. Member is required to verify their membership status in the form to ensure the validity of votes.
- d) Members are allowed to vote once for each position.
- e) Candidates are entitled to one scrutineer to be present for the tabulation of election results.

Article VIII - Impeachment

1. Executives on the Board of Directors may be removed from positions as a result of any serious offence, for reasons including but not limited to the following
 - a) Unable to fulfill the required duties, or failing to respond to communications from the Board of Directors after a period of three months or more;
 - b) Use of position held in contravention of the legitimate rights and interests of the Society.
2. The removal is determined by the general membership. A notice of removal of any executive member must be supported by a petition presented to the Board of Directors prior to the impeachment. A general member meeting is then called for the voting of impeachment. A voting result of simple majority is required for the impeachment to be effective.

Article IX - Amendments

1. Articles of the constitution may be amended only with the consent of unanimity of the Board of Directors;
2. Amendments to the constitution must then be approved by a two thirds majority at a regular board meeting.

Article X - Dissolution

1. In the event that the Society should dismantle, all assets and resources shall be donated to the School of Mathematics and Statistics until the event that a new Society is established and certified by CUSA.

Bylaws

1. By-elections

a) Vacant executive position

- (i) In the event of the vacancy of any executive position on the Board of Directors in office of the role, a by-election shall be held to seek replacement;
- (ii) If no executive member is elected for the position, the vacant role shall be assumed by other executives members of the Board of Directors, exact arrangement is up to the discretion of the remaining members of the Board of Directors;
- (iii) Nevertheless, in the event of the vacancy of any executive position on the Board of Directors declared after the reading week of the winter term as scheduled by Carleton University, the role shall remain vacant and will be filled in the upcoming election.

b) Resignation

- (i) In the event of resignation of the President, the Vice President(s) shall assume the duties and power of President until a By-Election is run and the result is known;
- (ii) In the event of resignation of the Vice President, the President shall assume the duties and power of Vice President until a By-Election is run and the result is known;
- (iii) In the event of resignation of the Treasurer, the Vice President(s) shall assume the duties and power of President until a By-Election is run and the result is known.

2. Membership

- a) Membership is valid from September 1st to April 30th for each academic school year. Membership can be purchased at anytime within this period.
- b) Membership fee is fixed during valid period; however, the fee is subject to change every year up to the discretion of the Board of Directors in office. Pro-rated or discounted membership fee is not available regardless of the time of registration.
- c) Only current student of Carleton University is eligible to purchase a membership. To purchase a membership of the Society as a student of University of Ottawa, please contact the President directly.

- d) Membership is cataloged according to the student number and Carleton email at the time of registration. These will be the credential of membership for the valid period.
- e) Membership of an individual cannot be revoked once purchased and registered successfully, even if, at any time during the valid period, the individual becomes not a student of Carleton University.
- f) Membership benefits of the Society are subject to change every year, and are determined by the Board of Directors before the start of a valid term.
- g) Membership is personal and is for the use on the campus of Carleton University. It cannot be sold, exchanged, given, assigned, traded, or otherwise transferred to any other natural person.
- h) Membership is non-refundable. Membership benefits have no monetary value whatsoever and cannot under any circumstances form the basis of a monetary claim against the Society, and cannot be converted to cash.
- i) All Executives, Non-executive staff, Student Representatives must have paid the membership fee before acting on behalf of the Society.

3. Privacy Policy

- a) The Society is committed to protecting members' privacy by only obtaining information deemed as reasonably necessary. The personal information collected at the time of registration is as follows:
 - (i) Email address assigned by Carleton University
 - (ii) Student number assigned by Carleton University
 - (iii) Full name
 - (iv) Academic year standing
 - (v) Subject majored of enrolled programme
- b) Personal information of member is used to assist the Society in better understanding the needs and preferences of members. Data is used in, including but not limited to, analysis, research, event development, and marketing to improve the member experience.
- c) Member consents to the Society's collection, use, and disclosure of the personal information as described in this privacy policy at the time of purchase.

- d) Member has the right to request a copy of their personal information registered in the Society at any time within the custody or control of the Society by contacting the Vice President. The Society may take reasonable steps to verify the identity of the member before responding to the request if one were to exercise the right.
- e) CUSA has the authority to review the data of the Society including but not limited to the list of members, member's personal information, and time of registration.
- f) Member has the right to cancel their membership at any time by contacting the Vice President.
- g) For the visit to the Society's website,
 - (i) Information about the device you are using will not be collected by the website, including (as applicable) IP address, device ID, the date and time of your visit, the pages of the website you visited, the referring URLs whence you came, the internet or mobile carrier, and service provider. However, these information could still be collected by the search engine you used to perform the search journey;
 - (ii) The Society's website server does not use cookies to recognize your visit nor employ any third-party advertising features;
 - (iii) The website does not collect any location information nor has access to the GPS location of the device. Location tracking functionality is not implemented on the website.
- h) All information is maintained on the Society's servers or those of our service providers and will be accessible by authorized persons, representatives, and service providers who require access for the purposes described in this Privacy Policy. The Society strives to protect and safeguard these information using physical, electronic and procedural measures appropriate to the sensitivity of the information. Information is retained for as long as necessary to fulfil the purposes for which the information was collected and otherwise meet statutory obligations and reasonable requirements.

4. Agreement & Liability

- a) Member agrees to be bound by the constitution and bylaws of the Society once membership is purchased and registered successfully.

- b) The Society has the final authority as to the interpretation of the constitution and bylaws of the Society and as to any other disputes regarding the operation and membership benefits. In the event that any provision in the constitution and bylaws of the Society is determined to be invalid, or unenforceable, such determination shall not affect the validity and enforceability of any other remaining provisions of the constitution and bylaws.
- c) None of the Society, Board of Directors, Non-executive staff, Student Representatives shall assume any liability whatsoever, including without limitation, liability for any expense, loss, cost, injury, accident, incidental or punitive damages, or any other matter or thing whatsoever.
- d) In the event of any inconsistency between any provision in the constitution and bylaws of the Society and any provision in the amended bylaws, the provision in the amended bylaws shall prevail.